REMARKS TO BE READ ON MY BEHALF AT THE OPENING OF "OUR HOUSE" TAILEM BEND
DURING CELEBRATION OF THE TOWN'S CENTENARY JULY 28TH 1887 - 1987

It is fitting that as we celebrate the passage of our first century of existence in Tailem Bend, and stand on the threshold to enter our second century - that we demonstrate our commitment to caring for each other and therefore our spirit of "community", by formally opening "Our House" as a neighbourhood's centre through which we can co-ordinate our activities and efforts to help even more of us enjoy better, happier tomorrows than yesterdays. As we look back, we know we have much to be grateful for, but as we look forward we can also recognise ways in which we can do better in the future.

My congratulations go to all of you who have been involved in the work of planning and developing the ideas and bringing them to fruition.

With best wishes and God's blessing for the future.

SISTA GIRL

Friday 26 May 1pm
TAILEM BEND TOWN HALL
Tickets available through Tailem Bend Community Centre
tbcc.org.au or 08 8572 3513

Presented by State Theatre Company & Yirra Yaakin Theatre Company

By Elena Carapetis and Alexis West

Two young women meet face to face for the first time across the bed of a dying man. Strangers to each other but bonded by blood and grief. Sisters. They break the cold silence of the hospital room to start a difficult conversation. About the past and secrets. About the women who were their mothers. And about why this man, their father, abandoned one family to make another. When the past is dying and can't say sorry, how do you move on?

Sista Girl is an exploration of the relationship between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Australians, via the story of two women who share a white father. Co-written by Elena Carapetis (Gorgon) and Alexis West (Echoes of Knowing Home) especially for the brilliant Natasha Wanganeen (Rabbit Proof Fence, The Shadow King) and Nadia Rossi, the play will speak directly to audiences about questions of identity, grief and the complex nature of family.

The tickets are $26 for adults, $23 for groups of 6 or more and $15 for under 17s.

School discounts available by contacting Kimberley Martin on (08) 8415 5314
