Our annual AGM was held on Tuesday 7th September and due to Covid-19 restrictions, only a limited number of community members could attend. The newly appointed 2021/22 Board of Management was announced, discussions took place reflecting on what was the year 2020/21, and morning tea was enjoyed by those who stayed after the meeting.

Our 2020/21 Annual Report was given out at the AGM, if you are interested in having a read, this is available on our website <https://www.tbcc.org.au/about/annual-reports/> or you can visit TBCC, to collect a hard copy.

A big thank you to retiring board members Linda McDougall, Kareena Harwood and Tash Loveday and a big welcome to our newly appointed board members for 2021/22.

Green Sheep Project Celebrating Six Years— Initiated by a 12 year old girl, a project fundraised by the local community and inspired by the book 'Where is The Green Sheep' written by Mem Fox. On the 29th of September 2015, seven sheep uniquely painted by students from the Taillem Bend Primary School, were installed by Coorong District Council around the railway playground in Taillem Bend. However, in 2016 one sheep was stolen and has never been replaced. It would cost $450 to do so, would anyone in the community like to contribute to make this happen?
